All My Life Was Music
[Music and lyrics: Tero Arteli]

Everything is so fucked up,
Everything is so bad,
I am so fustrated,
I am so mad.

All my life was music,
and I did all I can,
but now I see I’m gonna lose it,
nothing went like I planned.

If I think it’s the salt of life, all others think it’s just joke,
just like throwing pair of dice, nothing but a lot of doubts.

All my life was music,
and I did all I can,
but now I see I’m gonna lose it,
nothing went like I planned.

It is just how to value, what comes fi rst and what comes last.
Seems to be, it’s just the work, that’s number one and then comes rock.

All my life it’s just music,
I’m getting old and losin’ my touch.
What I did, please go ahead and use it,
‘cause I think I’m gonna quit

All my life it’s just music,
I’m getting old and losin’ my touch.
What I did, please go ahead and use it,
‘cause I think I’m gonna quit
