It Stinks Inside My Left Eyeball

[Music and lyrics: Tero Arteli]

Whatever he drink, i'll have a same
I felt so odd so long time
Wannabe rockers just take my time
My life is just full of lame.

Doctor, please, remove my eye,
It stinks inside my left eyeball

This road is long and it's dark
I hear all the time dogs bark,
Is this road or is this yard
I think this is just too hard.

Doctor, please, remove my eye,
It stinks inside my left eyeball

I don't know why I hold,
My misty brains will be sold.
I feel so lonely in the crowd,
This is maybe my own fault.

Doctor, please, remove my eye,
It stinks inside my left eyeball

Doctor, please, remove my eye,
It stinks inside my left eyeball
