

Blue Moment Before Sunset

(Tero Arteli 30.11.2004)

I sit down in my kitchen window

It's evening and the sun will set

Everything is peaceful and quiet

and I was all alone

I look blue moment before sunset

and remembered You again.

I look blue moment before sunset

and remembered You again.

Once You were by my side,

but You took away from me.

It was too early like all said,

and since then I'm all alone.

I look blue moment before sunset

and remembered You again.

I look blue moment before sunset

and remembered You again.

We sat that same place together,

and I feel Your hand in my.

I miss that moment still so much,

and I feel so alone.

I look blue moment before sunset

and remembered You again.

I look blue moment before sunset

and remembered You again.

I look blue moment before sunset

and remembered - You again.
